

Information About The Trinity Mission's Daily Readings for the Christian Year

Our daily lectionary achieves all of the following*:

- Read through every part of the New Testament at least twice a year
- Read through greater part of the Old Testament every year (if read both Morning and Evening)
- Coordinates with the RCL/'79BCP Sunday / Eucharist readings
- Consist of one OT and one NT reading for each Morning and Evening
- Both OT and NT readings that proceed semi-continuously (even across Holy Days and moveable seasons)
- Have readings that proceed continuously even if someone only does Morning readings or only does Evening readings
- Use readings that follow the liturgical season with special readings for Holy Days
- Have each reading be manageable for our daily prayer podcast service
- Be simple and clear as to which reading is to be used on any given date

* Currently there are no readings from the Apocrypha but there is a plan for how those readings may be offered as alternatives to the Old Testament readings during parts of the year.

 Parts of 1 & 2 Chronicles are offered as alternative readings to their identical sections in Samuel or Kings. Additionally, the following Scripture is not used at all in the lectionary:
